SVN Adds Property Management Executives

Aiken and Goodrich Join Orange County Office

Benjamin Aiken and John Goodrich have joined the Orange County office of Sperry Van Ness as property management executives.

Goodrich and Aiken have more than 30 years combined experience in management and leasing. Goodrich has been an asset manager with Furst Commercial Real Estate and RREEF. Aiken was director of asset management for ICO Development and has also been with CBRE and Equity Office.

The Orange County office of Sperry Van Ness is responsible for managing 2 million square feet in the Southern California region.
