West Palm Beach (WiredPRNews.com) — South Florida commercial real estate owners, tenants and investors have a new, innovative platform for coming together in a challenging and ever-changing market. Edward A. Kearney of Sperry Van Ness, Kearney Commercial Realty has launched a new website www.svnpalmbeach.com for those seeking a more effective approach to getting maximum value from real estate transactions. With the launch of the new site, Kearney is providing investors with access to a 100,000 strong investment and brokerage community.

A Different Kind of Brokerage Firm

The West Palm Beach commercial real estate advisors of Sperry Van Ness utilize a co-brokerage approach that provides clients with access to more brokers and buyers by tapping into key markets on a national scale. The firm is renowned for putting the interests of their clients first by delivering on their commitment to provide each with maximum effort and exposure whether leasing vacant space, selling a property or representing a prospective tenant. Anyone with an interest in West Palm Beach commercial real estate is encouraged to visit Ed Kearney at Kearney Commercial Realty online for more information about the Sperry Van Ness difference.
